2020 December 13, Sunday: Mystery play reading

14:00 Croydon Virtual Meeting House As a Christmas celebration we will have an informal reading of some medieval mystery plays. We can all join in - no acting experience necessary!

The scripts can be read online or transferred to your Kindle or other hand-held device. See:

- Herod the Great from the Wakefield / Towneley cycle
- The Creation of Earth and Fall of Man from the n-Town cycle
- The Creation of Heaven and Fall of Lucifer - n-Town
- The Cherry Tree and Nativity - n-Town

Requests made here for specific rôles will be considered.

Trowle Good lord, look on me
And my flock as they feed here.
On this wold walk we.
And my good dog Dottynowle
That is never slow to be chiding.

From The Paynters and the Glasiors Playe of the Chester Cycle.
